

Please protect telephone privacy laws and keep the CBA from imposing the federal "established business relationship." We don't need anymore unsolicited calls. If we need their services, consumers can call them. But we should not be disturbed in the privacy of our own homes for solicitations whether we do business with a company already or not!!
Sincerely, Kristie L. Nelson